

An abstract painting by Marty Sander. The composition is dominated by warm yellow and ochre tones, with a large, expressive brushstroke of reddish-brown across the upper middle. On the left, a dark, almost black silhouette of a figure stands on a yellow base, holding a blue object that resembles a fan or a propeller. In the top left corner, there's a white circular shape with a blue fan-like structure inside. On the right, a large, yellow, rounded shape with a dark blue circular opening and a white interior is visible. At the bottom, a white silhouette of a figure is shown from the chest up, holding a white pole. The overall style is gestural and expressive, with visible brushwork and a rich, textured surface.
